Sucina Golf
Southern Costa Blanca

€141,000

Semi-Detached

Sucina is a tranquil village midway between the Mar Menor coast and the city of Murcia offering a range of local amenities and the opportunity of a genuine Spanish lifestyle.

This attractive development is located adjacent to the village and offers a wide range of impressive bungalows and detached properties which have proved very popular with European buyers.

A golf course and new commercial centres are planned close by as are pool and sporting facilities.
